DEDICATION

To those whose places in our lives can never be overestimated - our fond and proud parents - we dedicate this book. Your quiet vigilance and gentle encouragement give us the greatest security that we know. May this record of our years here be considered one of your personal achievements, and we present it to you with our deepest love and gratitude.

ADMINISTRATION

*The quality of mercy is not strained;
It droppeth, as the gentle rain from heaven
Upon the place beneath; it is twice bless'd —
It blesseth him that gives, and him that takes.*

SUPERINTENDENT'S MESSAGE

I am pleased to extend congratulations to the graduating class of 1961 at Ballard-Hudson High School. The theme which you have selected for your annual, "These We Cherish," is symbolic of the high value which you place upon the rich and abundant experiences gained through your school studies and activities during the past several years. May they be a steadying influence and a powerful incentive for the achievement of the real and meaningful values of life.

Best wishes for your success in the future!

Sincerely,

Julius Gholson

Superintendent

ASSISTANT SUPERINTENDENT'S MESSAGE

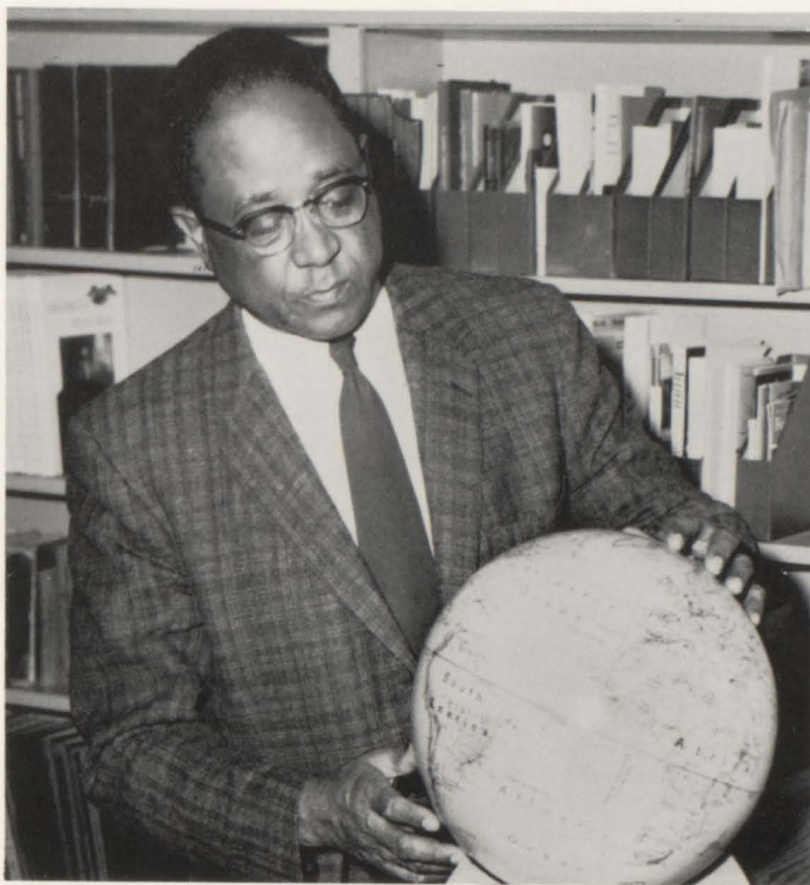

I wish to commend the staff, the faculty, and all connected with this yearbook for the high quality of its production. Your school holds an enviable place among the best schools of this state, not only in this activity, but in the other areas of school endeavor. Continued application of this same diligent effort to all phases of school work by every student enrolled could make success for all a reality.

Sincerely,

S. L. Newberry

Assistant Superintendent

PRINCIPAL'S MESSAGE

I am very happy, as the principal of Ballard-Hudson High School, to congratulate the Senior Class on their presentation of the 1961 Tiger. In carrying out the theme, "These We Cherish . . .," be ever mindful of, rapid changing global affairs to the extent that you gain broad concepts and ideals which will be of great value to you as you take your place in the society of the world.

Your years at Ballard-Hudson are years in your past; evaluate them and determine whether or not your best has been given. If there are things that can be improved, start now. You can only arrive at the top by beginning your climb early.

Your key to success and happiness is excellence in performance in whatever you do. You must not be satisfied with less than your best.

*All the world's a stage
And all the men and women merely players:

entrances;
And one man in his time plays
many parts, . . .*

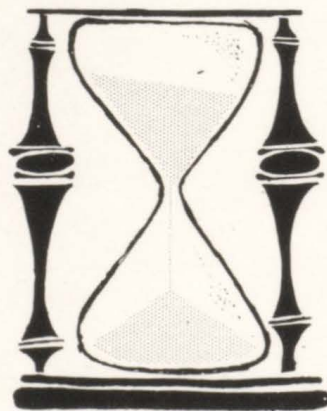

SHAKESPEARE

On these pages, let us revive the slumbering; let us re-enact the play. Knowing that these golden memories will capture for us an infinity of togetherness, WE CHERISH . . .
